"We are so proud of the Youth Awards program, which is progressing by leaps and bounds with more sponsor involvement, celebrity participation, and most importantly, student recognition." said José Antonio Tijerino, President and CEO of the Hispanic Heritage Foundation. "The NorthEast Awardees are role models and leaders who excel inside and outside of the classroom. They and their fellow regional honorees represent the next generation of emerging Hispanic professionals, and we are committed to providing them with opportunity and support."

"The students being honored are an inspiration to us all," said actor Wilmer Valderrama, Official Spokesperson of the 2008 Hispanic Heritage Youth Awards and Inspira Award Recipient. "These young leaders are setting a positive example not only for the Hispanic community, but for people throughout the country. The determination, generosity of spirit, and accomplishment they have demonstrated at such young ages are only a small fraction of what they will eventually go on to achieve, and I applaud their hard work."

The success of the Youth Awards program is predicated by the support of thousands of high schools, community organizations, and business partners. In addition to the category sponsors listed above, the Inspira Award is presented by Hershey's. These young leaders are promoted as role models for their peers. With the Youth Awards as a feeder program, the LOFT (Latinos on Fast Track) initiative was launched in 2004 to systematically develop sustainable relationships between top Hispanic young professionals who have been awarded and America's workforce.
